- Activities based on slides on Showbie assignments, will be self-assessed, some will be peer-assessed through a quick check, whole-class presentation of work on Showbie, this enables the teacher to view a snapshot of the work being completed. Homework:

- Homework will occasionally be set, where it is necessary for the benefit of the student for example revising for an end of unit test. The homework should take the pupils up to thirty minutes.

verbal comment too. The AQA GCSE marking criteria grid relevant to the component will be shared and highlighted to show achievements and a mark awarded for the work.

- Practical assessments are uploaded to Showbie and each student can see their performance in relation to others but only see the feedback for themselves. For the students to be able to see the exact performance they are being marked on and reflect upon this with the teacher's feedback is valuable for future development.
- Written tests will be live through Google docs. This has proven useful for real-time feedback during remote learning so that students can be prompted and guided through exam practice questions. Real-time dialogue marking provides instant focussed written feedback from the teacher and through making instant amendments and additions the teacher can clearly see the thought-process of the student.
