

Thursday 28th September

Dear Parent/Carer,

Your child has been invited to visit St Peter's School on the afternoon of Monday 2nd October to hear a local author discuss her Booker-nominated novel, Elmet.

Fiona Mozely was a pupil at Fulford School and currently works in The Little Apple Book Shop where she started the novel on her phone! We hope hearing her read from and talk about her book will be an inspiring experience for keen readers and writers who might have toyed with the idea of writing a novel of their own.

We will depart from school in the school minibus after lunch and as the event is likely to finish at 3.30pm, we are happy for students to make their own way home from town - if they have permission. Those wishing to return to school can of course come back on the mini-bus.

There is no charge for the event and it will be well attended by sixth formers and other Year 11 students from around the city.

Please return the slip below as soon as possible to Ms Metcalf in S16 on the English corridor.

I apologise for the short notice necessitating a quick turnaround of permission slips but I only received confirmation of the event times yesterday. Many thanks in advance for your support.

Yours faithfully,

Ms R. Metcalf
Teacher of English

Students please be aware that we will meet in reception at the end of lunch to set off for St Peter's no later than 1.30pm.

I give permission for _____ to attend the trip to St Peter's School on Monday 2nd October.

Signed _____
